You're the One

Damone

Forever pushing 10 to midnight
Fadin' to the black
Tonight I'm going through the red lights
Always thinking backIt really doesn't matter
It's all in my mind
I think about it all of the timeYou're the one living in the moment
I thought everything was sure
You're the one telling me it's hopeless
Don't know what I'm sorry forThe losers and the run-around guys
Hang out in the street
I waited 'til you said your goodbyes
Just so we could meetIt really doesn't matter
It's all in my mind
I think about it all of the timeYou're the one living in the moment
I thought everything was sure
You're the one telling me it's hopeless
Don't know what I'm sorry forYou're the one
I thought everything was sure
You're the one
Don't know what I'm sorry forI'm caught between I want and what's right
I'm caught between I want and what's right
I'm caught between I want and what's rightYou're the one living in the moment
I thought everything was sure
You're the one telling me it's hopeless
Don't know what I'm sorry forYou're the one living in the moment
I thought everything was sure
You're the one telling me it's hopeless
Don't know what I'm sorry for
