

A Day to God Is 1,000 Years

RZA

I wanna stay with you, foreverYo, yo, the A-1 sauce, the Divine Force
My mind blind force is known to blow time off course
Even, if I rode around the world on a blind horse
Strapped down, I'd still get my point across, Allah is father of allYou debate whether big, whether small
Whether short, whether tall
Whether dense, whether length
Whether strength, whether width, either man, animal, bird or fishWhether, black or white, more shapes than snowflakes
Existin', everywhere but you still can't locate
The man of steel couldn't bend me
Time couldn't end meEven the great devil Satan that tried to befriend me
Understand the equality, God in a bodily form
Lettin' my knowledge be born
Lettin' my knowledge be bornYo, yo, yo, I be the fatal flyin', I'm like NATO flyin'
Over your country and droppin' down forty tons of iron
Filled with explosives, your chance is hopeless
We have your head poppin' up like the blowfishI'm not talkin' Hootie, nigga pass the zootie
I could bag the cootie, maybe smoke the ootie
The runaway train with no track
I got the heart of Faye Dunaway whippin' that child with the coatrackT.V. droppin' bombs or droppin' germs
Baby moms in the courthouse, she's droppin' terms
Guns go off, bustin' all directions
D.J. choose, another fuckin' dope selectionMemories, with you forever
Like the corners of my mind
I wanna stay with you, foreverYo, the pen is mightier than the sword, as I face my worldly challenge
In the scale of justice and my heart remains balanced and neutral
My respect for all men is mutual
As my thoughts surpass a level to which you devils compute toYou've been given the chance to hear the true and living
So do the knowledge, son, before you do the wisdom
So you can understand, how the thunder and Lighting above your head is caused by the Son of ManWe experimentin' with high explosions
That cause the place to quake and the surface erosions
The earth produce lava like the mouth produce saliva
This wisdom goes deeper than your scuba diverIn search for the pearl jewels sold to Tiffany
My verbal heart symphony will strike the epiphany
Insight, ignite, and then men might, see love and hell
Hell and right, then excel, to be masters of your circumferenceFirst, by obtainin' mastery of your common sense
This supreme wisdom clears a man's vision

You can see it through the lies and the fantism
Of the equivocal, two-faced political individual
Who's only out for residual, fabricatin' lies to eradicate the wise
But we come to civilize and gravitate to the skies
Of the heavenly celestial sphere
Trust me, son, it's dear, in between your ears
A day to God is a 1000 years
Men walk around with a 1000 fears
The true joy of love bring a 1000 tears
In the world of desire, there's a 1000 snares
A day to God is a 1000 years
Men walk around with a 1000 fears
The true joy of love bring a 1000 tears
In the world of desire, there's a 1000 snares
I wanna stay with you forever
I wanna stay with you forever
