

Carnival Ride

Aubrey Ashburn

Just when I'm strong enough,
It starts to rain,
And on, and on,
I can't seem to stay in the right lane.
It makes me dangerous;
It suffocates me.
This body of fire
Has nobody left to burn. I close my eyes
And let the carnival ride
Spin away.
(Just let it spin away)
I close my eyes
And let the sun decide
My day.
(Just let it spin away)
Just when I'm brave enough,
The curtain's falling,
And one by one
People taking off down the hallway.
Better be surprised
Than worried down to the ground.
And blood runs just to my face;
I just had to take a break I close my eyes
And let the carnival ride
Spin away.
(Just let it spin away)
I close my eyes
And let the sun decide
My day.
(Just let it spin away)
I close my eyes
And let the carnival ride
Spin away.
(Just let it spin away)
I close my eyes
And let the sun decide
My day.
(Just let it spin away) Close your eyes
And let the sun decide...
