

For All That

Jennifer Rush

Everything changes
I'm wondering if it's the truth
'Cause I know the difference
You're making a move Trying to tell if I still tremble
When I think of you
I've crossed that line before
But you know that I still do, ooh You and me are fire and rain
We're like rolling thunder
All I know is I want you
You were racing, I slowed down
Trying to find a reason
For all that I cried for you I still wanna know you
By forging the chains of love
But I need to see through
Are you leading me on? Can you believe that it's surrender?
No, it never died
This hunger that survives
For all that I still want you You and me are fire and rain
We're like rolling thunder
All of that, I still want you
You were racing, I slowed down
Trying to find a reason
For all that I cried for you, for you You were mine
My heart was yours
We did not find
A way to survive You and me are fire and rain
We're like rolling thunder
All I know is I want you, hey, yeah
You were racing, I slowed you down
Trying to find a reason
For all that I cried for you You and me are fire and rain
We're like rolling thunder
All of that, I still want you
