From A Vauxhall Velox (LP Version)

Billy Bragg

She said "Do these seats fold down"
I said "If you pull that handle"
All the time she'd been waiting for Something with a little more
And all her mates on the new estates
Were walking out in confetti and sunshineHer mother read her mail
And her Dad was a Policeman
Which I must say worried me
But some things have just got to be
So we passed very fast like ships in the night
Or cars in a contraflow systemSome people say love is blind
But I think that's just a bit short-sighted
Some people just want it now
It doesn't matter where or how
Satisfaction takes a second place
So long as they can get excited
