

Waking Up

Matt Brouwer

Every time something's wrong
I wake up to find Your love
All I know, we're moving on
A new horizon with the setting sun
Waking up tonight
It's a sign of life
Only Your light can find me
Only Your love can save me
All our pain, every tear
The river wide and deep as the oceans near
From looking back to what's ahead
I tremble at the grace
That brings life from the dead
Waking up tonight
It's a sign of life
Only Your light can find me
Only Your love can save me
Feeling like I'm alone
Everything is over my head
I try and let it go holding on to nothing instead Turn the page cause where we are is not
Where we're going now
Waking up tonight
It's a sign of life
Only Your light can find me
Only Your love can save me
Waking up tonight
O God I need a sign
Only Your light can find me
Only Your love can save me
Only Your love can wake me
