

I, Punk

Orient Fall

What and what we want and where want to go?

This future hum of the underground:

a vicious masquerade, a constant remembrance the old scars!

A desire to leave the pale sky behind and sail, sail across the globe!

What and what we want and where want to go?

We will not allow you to burn down our kingdom! I am the one; I am the one who knocks!

Let the world not to constellate the sun!

Propagate this worldwide punk and the anthem of how he is the one who sails, sails across the globe! What and what we want and where want to go?

This future hum of the underground:

a vicious masquerade, a constant remembrance the old scars!

A desire to leave the pale sky behind and sail, sail across the globe! Fear, fear, the fear of failure: blessing ignored becomes a curse.

Extraordinary will strive to be the one! Determine your path!

DETERMINATE!
