Punchline

louis logic

Twenty nine found dead in the bath That weren't what wife was after Pushed the joke too far
Into the here and after
I know you can hear
That's no sense of humour Twenty nineWas it really the only way to see it through to the last laughThirty three found dead in a car Went out and bought the car
Pushed the joke too far
Into the here and after
I know you can hear
That's no sense of humourWas it really the only way to see it through to the last laughYou pushed too hard, you pushed too far The punchline was lost on you No need to wait no need to try to even see it throughTwenty nine found dead in the bath (what's the punchline?) Thirty three found dead in a car (what's the punchline?)Was it really the only way to see it through to the last laugh
