

Talent

Pixies

I met this real cool dude today
Looking like Jack Palance
He said I wanna get through to you
And help you find your talentHe said that if I had a certain style
Then stuff would start to happen
He said that soon he was going away
Cause he's a major talentTalent, fighting on the East Side
Talent, taking on the West Side
Talent, fucking up the North Side
He's a major talentTalent, fighting on the East Side
Talent, taking on the West Side
Talent, fucking up the North Side
He's a major talent
(I don't know)I said that he was getting through to me
And I would take his challenge
And maybe soon I'd be going away
Cause I had certain talentsTalent, fighting on the East Side
Talent, taking on the West Side
Talent, fucking up the North Side
I'm a major talentTalent, fighting on the East Side
Talent, taking on the West Side
Talent, fucking up the North SideI met this dude today
Down in the sewers of Paris
Was hiding from the sun
What a waste of talent
