

Peace Of Mind

Mindy Smith

I need peace of mind and a hopeful heart
To lose this rage and move out in the dark
I am looking for rainbows and shooting stars
Just some peace of mind and a hopeful heart
I need peace of mind and a lullaby
'Cause there's an angry voice in my head tonight
Telling me that you think it can't be right
I need peace of mind and a lullaby
And a miracle for this broken soul
A little miracle for this broken soul
I need peace of mind and a gentle head
As I try to change the way I am
And hope God forgives when I can't
I need peace of mind and a gentle head
Or a miracle for this broken soul
A little miracle for this broken soul
I need peace of mind and a hopeful heart
