Bottleneck

Sandwich

It's just another bottleneck day up and away, stuck in the middle of a parking lot hi way excuse me, what did you say?
I think the signal's breaking up,
make up your mind
Do you still want to catch the matinee or should we go, rent a video?
Order out a pizza to the bungalow show escape the mad rush, you're my main crush hush little baby can't find the remote control check the radius plus or minus extemporaneous, are you ready for the loophole fluke zone, check your time warp push it overdrive, skip the marshmallow take me to the cyclone try to look sharp, superpoweride sleepy like hollow, gettin' mellow like a cutterpillow daydream summer stir like a kitty cat, machime drummer (1-2)
It's just another bottleneck day morning afterJust give me a second, and I'll show you how to do it Hit the playback and get ready to transmit show the back spin, trust the shaolin, full adrenaline What? I want my theremin, Read the big sign beware of canine Grease factor sector nine representative of the legendary weave I believe There's still a few more tricks up the sleeve Don't be deceived by the press, trying to be clever, pay no mind to know it all cyberspace surfer, open yo' ears, open yo' mind try to find your soul, leave your prejudice behind
If you find a little bit more send me an owl
Can I be a little bit sore, there was a fowl Trying to decide to cross the street better upgrade before you get obsolete
This is what makes insides
You always fell on the outside
But what does make it feel right Is living both on the last ride
