

Hearts Collide

Sarah Solovay

See the same thing every day,
They love to love in the dark,
Where they don't have to take a risk,
Don't have to play it smart...And now I think it's happening to you and me,
We'd rather go with this one safely,
Hope we'll notice when we're apart,
And it'll take a toll on our hearts...What if I we're only dreaming,
Wishing while we're sleeping,
And tomorrow we'll wake to find...It's now or never,
We're meant to be together,
Would you take a chance, make a move,
Answer this prayer of mine...Maybe it's special this time,
Maybe our hearts will collide...I've liked you for a while,
I think you've liked me too,
I smiled when I saw you smile,
I didn't have a clue...That we both were shy,
We both would lie to the world,
So the other wouldn't know,
But now we're each on separate boats in the ocean,
With nowhere to go...So baby what if we're only dreaming,
Wishing while we're sleeping,
And tomorrow we'll wake to find...It's now or never,
We're meant to be together,
Would you take a chance, make a move,
Answer this prayer of mine...Maybe it's special this time,
Maybe our hearts will collide...
Maybe it's special this time,
Maybe, maybe...
So baby what if I we're only dreaming,
Wishing while we're sleeping,
And tomorrow we'll wake to find...It's now or never,
We're meant to be together,
Would you take a chance, make a move,
Answer this prayer of mine...Maybe it's special this time,
Maybe our hearts will collide...
