Unemployment Blues

Buckethead

They fired me from my job
I worked at the slaughterhouse
They said I was one of the best gutters they've ever seen
But they fired me and they're gonna payI'm goin' back there another day
I'm gonna go back there another day
I'm gonna go back there another dayIt's after hours and I'm hidin' in the hour
It's after hours and I'm hidin' in the showers
It's after hours and I'm hidin' in the showers
When they arrive in the morning I'll be waiting for themI'm gonna show 'em I'm the best gutter around
'Cause they're gonna see what I have found
I'm gonna teach 'em what I did and show 'em how to bleed and
I'm gonna bleed them all to death, I'm gonna bleed them all to deathIn the shower, I'm in the shower, blood's comin' out
Look at the glow in my eyes, I'm, I'm glowing, I'm, I'm glowing
It's fine, it, it's okay that I got firedI never gutted a human before but I like 'em better
They kick and they scream, they talk to me
And that's better than a cowBecause when they kill a cow they just kinda moo and There's not much you can do but with these humans it's like
They kick and they scream, they whine, they go crazy
But I'm holding them down and I'm making them frownBecause they look into my eyes whiles I kill them and they die
Because I'm gutting them alive, I'm gutting them alive
I'm gutting them alive, I'm gutting them alive
Gutting them alive
