

Atheist Anthem (4-Track Demo)

Leftover Crack

Atheism, Satanism, Autonomy,
It's all the fuckin' same,
Those straight-edge christ-core motherfuckers,
They don't know shit,
People are just fucking sheep, looking for easy answers,
And they're too close minded
To look anywhere beyond their local church,
Or whatever the ignorant masses say is true. From high up on yer crucifix
You preach about my triple 6 You spit about my this and that And yank away yer welcome mat
With a coupon jesus christ will save So don't you christians misbehave
"cause satan makes the list himself And it's rotting on the warehouse shelf And all the boys in the straight-edge scene are in the basement huffing gasoline, they're Dead, dead, dead, dead
their god is dead to me!
And when the laws of God just make ya pissed
You better become an atheist Your
Dead, dead, dead, dead
Your god is dead to me! When the greed of man is not appeased
All will rot sick and diseased
Once again the fallen towers
The Tortured death of every hour
And at the toll of the final bell
You lead the righteous down to hell
When all the world is dead and gone All I ask is bring me along! And all the boys in the straight-edge scene are in the basement huffing gasolinem they're Dead, dead, dead, dead
their god is dead to me!
And when the laws of God just make ya pissed
You better become an atheist Your
Dead, dead, dead, dead
Your god is dead to me! Nuclear Apox spells your doom like the t.v. in your living room each bomb kills a million dead it melts yer skin and implodes yer head

And now you get your judgement day
You think you'll float up then away
But yer guilty just like everyone You turn to ash when the burning's done
And all the boys in the straight-edge scene are in the basement huffing gasoline
Dead, dead, dead, dead
Your god is dead to me!
And when the laws of God just make ya pissed
You better become an atheist You
Dead, dead, dead, dead
Your god is dead to me! There's a hunger within you a tapeworm deep inside or maybe it's just cancer the doctors can't decide but yer stomach keeps on growning as yer body wastes away and yer getting ill & weaker every single fucking day we are alone we are alone
