

Soul Possessed

Old Man's Child

Transformed into the night
I'm at one with the dark,
I have life within my strength
Yet it feels like I'm dead. I feel hate. Born as a man, raised as a demon Only death will do us apart, the beast in my innerself, awakes...A lord from within,
a demon inside.
Together as one we will grow strong. We feel hate. The wrath I feel inside is like the devil himself, this feeling I have learned to love has corrupted my soul. A lord from within,
a demon inside.
we will grow strong.
