Uneasy

Westworld

Holding my own, but sometimes
I think I might break
Fragile in one breath
Still, like a dark chameleon
Then I'm strong and braveWearing it well
Covered with time
Though sometimes hard to findI don't know why you make me so uneasy (so uneasy)
Blowing a storm through my world
You change the way I feelAlter the light when you appear
When you're next to me
Can it be you're the only one who can see me? (so uneasy)But I'll come around, just give me time
Been on my own since I was Born don't you know
Mostly they go
So will you be here when I'm downPeople have come and gone,
Or leave to chase the sunI really do want to believe
I don't know why you make me so uneasy (so uneasy)
When you're next to me
But I'll come around, just give me time
Can it be you're the only one who can see me? (so uneasy)
Blowin a storm through my world
You change the way I feelfeed the atmosphere
Alter the light when you appear
Leave the night unclear
