

In The Cold Winds Of Nowhere

Dissection

Search for my subconscious
Lead me into myself
A need to discover the dark
A will to enter these gates
 Oh, this temptation
 To end this empty life
In my dreams I saw my real side
 A journey through forever
 My vision's oh so bright
 Watching eternity open
 As I turn out life's light
 Oh, this temptation
 To leave this earthly shell
Deep inside, the toll of death's bell
 In the cold winds of nowhere
 With a sigh I pass away
 Falling, into harmonic sleep
Then I'll find my prophecies wasn't lies
 Falling, into the abyss I come...
 I... I am dying...
 Death... Does heal me...
 In the cold winds of nowhere
