

Somethin' We Shouldn't Do

Chad Brownlee

Baby I've been drinking something I really shouldn't drink
And I'm halfway through seven numbers I know I shouldn't call
And I've been playing that song I ought to know better than to play
When you pick up that phone I'll say something I shouldn't sayHey, baby do you miss me tonight?

Hey, do you wanna get wrong just right?

Let's make a mistake, hell let's make a few

And maybe, do something that we shouldn't do, baby

Something, something that we shouldn't do'Bout to turn down the street I swore I'd never do back down
'Bout to cross a bridge I really should have burned by now
'Bout to knock on a door we really ought to keep closed

Trying to piece back together something that's better off brokeHey, baby do you miss me tonight?

Hey, do you wanna get wrong just right?

Let's make a mistake, hell let's make a few

And maybe, do something that we shouldn't do, baby

Something, something that we shouldn't do

Oh, yeahOh, do you wanna tell those lies, like we don't know the truth

Like we don't always end the way we always do?

Let's pretend the sun ain't gonna come back up

Ain't gonna shed some light, the way it always doesHey, baby do you miss me tonight?

Hey, do you wanna get wrong just right?

Let's make a mistake, hell let's make a few

And maybe, do something that we shouldn't do, baby

'Cause if it's over, it ain't over yet

Let's get what we can get out of the same regret

Make a mistake, hell let's make a few, and maybe

Do something that we shouldn't do, baby

Something, something that we shouldn't doSomething, something that we shouldn't do, yeah

Let's do something, something that we shouldn't do
