Desire, Want, Need

Big Sean

[Chorus]Got goals, got dreams, I'm infatuated with nice things.
I love money, it might seem.
This is my desire want and need.
All I do is eat shit and think about success.
Cause man, I done have enough stress.
But I beat every obstacle they put up.
I'm back against the wall like a stove so I cook up.
I've always been the best at every single thing I took up.
So I feel extra bad for the challenges they hooked up.
(D-Town)Come and make a visit to the (West Side) if I need to be specific.
If I ever up in court best believe I plead the fifth and they headed to the club bartender bring a 50.
These niggas bitches swear to god the p-to-missing.
I'm just chillin with my family, Mr. Peter Griffin.
And my girl look better than yours.
And I'm the only thing lookin better than her.
Yeah, and I'm just tryin to make a million off recordin.
Psychic read my fortune, said Id be worth a fortune.
[Chorus x2]I learned at a young age you gotta grind for it.
We been waitin all day n night for it.
It seems like weve been waiting all our life for it.
Some niggas'll take a life for it.

But I'm a say it I did it all legitimate then put my niggas on it just to say I was considerate.
Race to success and I'm like where the competition went?
The musics runnin bitch and it never tore a ligament.
Niggas comin up to me like Sean I beg your pardon.
B-I-G, but how much is you chargin?
Runnin up to me for they buzz like a barber.
And all that weak shit just make mine sound harder.
And I'm a live this life till I'm gone.
Only people that could give you life is a judge and God.
But the only one that judge me is my God.
So I'm a live life like fuck what you thought.
[Chorus x2]This is what I live for.
This is what I die for.
This is what I stayed up every single night for.
This is what I waited my whole life for.
This is what I waited my whole life for.
This is what I live for.

This is what I die for.
This is what I stayed up every single night for.
This is what I waited my whole life for.
This is what I waited my whole life for.
[Chorus x2]
