Waiting For Daylight

Adema

We'll raise our fists and we'll stomp our feet
We will resist all authority until they topside
We're marching admirably, let them see
We'll watch them crumble, oh, we're gonna watch them die
When all the people settle down
And all the alcohol runs out
I'll just sit here by myself
(Waiting for)
Each and every souls worn thin
All the walls are closing in
(Waiting for)
Wishing I was someone else
(Waiting for)
Waiting for the daylight to come
The highway's coming alive tonight
We'll kill the headlights, roll right through the twists and the turns
We'll make our move when the time is right
We'll start our fire, oh and let them watch it burn
When all the people settle down
And all the alcohol runs out
I'll just sit here by myself
(Waiting for)
Each and every souls worn thin
All the walls are closing in
(Waiting for)
Wishing I was someone else
(Waiting for)
Waiting for the daylight to come
I take everything I'm given
Can't stand 'cause the room keeps spinning
This is the life that I'm livin'
(This is the life that I'm livin')
I take everything I'm given
Can't stand 'cause the room keeps spinning
This is the life that I'm livin'
(This is the life this is the life)
When all the people settle down
And all the alcohol runs out
I'll just sit here by myself

(Waiting for)
Each and every souls worn thin
All the walls are closing in
(Waiting for)
Wishing I was someone else
(Waiting for)
Waiting for the daylight to come
(Waiting for the daylight to come)
To come, to come

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/