

The Best

Kat Edmonson

I don't think I could love you more
But I could love you better baby yes
I wanna give you the best that I have yes
I wanna give you the best that I have
I don't mean that I'm keeping score
I just mean to be better baby yes
I wanna give you the best that I have yes
Give you the best that I have
And when the walls come down now
We'll be standing on the solid foundation
And when the wind blows in then
We'll take shelter in each other's arms
And when the well runs dry why
We'll make do about the situation
And then we'll get right back
Get right back where we belong
I don't think I could love you more oh
No but I could love you better baby yes
I wanna give you the best that I have yes
Give you the best that I have
Yeah give you the best that I have
I wanna give you the best that I have yes
