

Past Life

Matchbox Bluesband

There you were standing against the wall
Looking cool, sippin and lippin with your group of friends
And I knew just as easy as the air I breathe
You had a vibe that gave me reason to believe
 .and I knew (I knew)
 It was you (it was you)
 Yes I knew (I knew)
It was you (it was you) If your past life finds you once more maybe
 The one you're lovin now you loved before
 So familiar it feels so right baby
Maybe I knew you in a past life There we were inside a dungeon in spain
 Or we were lions making love in the rain
 In south america or was it japan
You were a woman, maybe I was a man But I knew (I knew)
 It was you (it was you)
 Yes I knew (I knew)
It was you (it was you) Chorus And you walk over to me with that old cliché
 Don't I know you from somewhere someplace
 I start to laugh and say that just might be
This ain't the first time it's been you and me And I knew (I knew)
 It was you (it was you)
 Yes I knew (I knew)
 It was you (it was you)
