

Sayonara

Gina T.

She seems to be the light of the morning sun
She is the only pearl of her family
One day she fell in love but the rules are strong, so strong ...
Don't love the strangers, no one lets go in here.

And she says don't cry for me my love, sayonara ...
Don't forget the nights of thousand breathes
Don't forget the little Japanese, sayonara ...
In my heart I keep on love in you

Up in her eyes she show all the love and pain
Japanese managed all that he had to go
And sometimes in the night you can hear her cry, her cry ...
So loneliness the life from sweet butterfly ...

And she says don't cry for me my love, sayonara ...
Don't forget the nights of thousands breathes
Don't forget the little Japanese, sayonara ...
In my heart I keep on love in you ...

One day she fell in love but the rules are strong, so strong ...
Don't love the strangers, no one lets go in here.

And she says don't cry for me my love, sayonara ...
Don't forget the nights of thousand breathes
Don't forget the little Japanese, sayonara ...
In my heart I keep on love in you ...
