Apocalypse

Holyhell

The Gates of heaven opened
A white horse did appear
There an angel standing in the sunFire in his eyes
The angels herald his command
There the keys to hell and death
Were burning in his handBlack angels are falling
The gates of hell are calling
Black angels are falling
Hells callingBlack angels are falling
The gates of hell are calling
Black angels are falling
The gates of hell are calling youThe seven seals now open
The day of wrath has come
Angels bring us fire blood and hailStars fall from the heavens
Mountains fall into the sea
The beast upon his throne is laughing
Evil is supremeDay into night
Dark into light
For the crown of lifeFour-horseman ride
Black, red and white
The pale horse death shall rideBlack angels are falling
The gates of hell are calling
Black angels are falling
Hells callingBlack angels are falling
The gates of hell are calling
Black angels are falling
The gates of hell are calling youThe Gates Of heaven opened
A white horse did appear
There an angel standing in the sunFire in his eyes
The angels herald his command
There the keys to hell and death
Were burning in his handDay into night
Dark into light
For the crown of lifeFour-horseman ride
Black, red and white
The pale horse death shall ride
