Ten Shades

Blue States

A promise of love or the spell you were under
Get you kind every week here
Undo these buttons I'll stitch you up down the middle
As bad as it gets you can always ejectBut the passengers, they'll all go down
Don't say you'd go that far
For some it's easyIf you're looking for a soul
You can have mine
If you're looking for a soul
Ten shades blacker than your ownSo hold out your arms I'll give you a number
Now that the daily feeds here
Red painted walls and floors it's all for a reason
Be right back with a gun and a sackNeed them when you've taken enough to react
Seems strange you'd go that far
For some it just gets easierIf you're looking for a soul
You can have mine
If you're looking for a soul
Ten shades blacker than your ownSeems strange you'd go that far
For some I guess it's easier
Seems strange you'd go that far
For some I guess it's easier
