Ocean

Cerys Matthews

Two ships passing in the night
Drop an anchor for a while
We'll share some company
We're the same, you and me
It's in the air that we breathe
And there's no shameWide is the ocean
Sweet gravityAnd beneath the evening sun
If there's work to be done
I shall not falter
Swell she'll ease, swell she'll rise
Take my seat there by your side
You won me overWide is the ocean
Sweet gravity(For)
Every reason a purpose begins
A time and place for everything
The sun will not burn you
The moon will not roamWide is the ocean
Sweet gravityI long to follow
