Clockwork Toy

Loudness

Sometimes I scream, sometimes I cry
Sometimes I just lie in illusion
Some nights I shake, some nights I sweat
Some nights I'm just wet with confusionDon't do this, don't do that
Don't look back, you might stumble
Don't say yes, don't say no
Don't let go or you'll tumble downSome days I kick, some days I bite
Some days I must fight the reaction
Sometimes I win, sometimes I lose
Sometimes I'm just bruised by the actionDon't do this, don't do that
Don't look back, you might stumble
Don't say yes, don't say no
Don't let go or you'll tumbleNow you have the power to destroy
Clockwork people just like clockwork toysDon't try to tell me your fantasy
It's my life
You try to tell me what's right for me
Turn the knife, twist the keyDon't do this, don't do that
Don't look back, you might stumble
Don't say yes, don't say no
Don't let go or you'll tumbleNow you have the power to destroy
Clockwork people just like clockwork toysNow we have the power to destroy
Clockwork people just like clockwork toys
