

Dope Island

T Bone Burnett

We lived outside the law
We struck with wild desire
We blinded all we saw
We made the sun our fireBut now a lines been crossed
Our intuition lostWhere yellow orchids bloomed
The land is scorched an doomed
We were both here and gone
We rode with cruel deceit
We took the moon at dawn
The stars fell at our feetBut now the dies been cast
Our vision fading fast
Where rivers ran with coldDarkness falls through the banyan tree
Beating wings of no birds
Waves of loneliness break on me
In the sound of no wordsBut now the nights gone dead
The hours filled with dread
Where blue magnolias laid
The colors twist and fadeWe lived outside the law
We struck with wild desire
We blinded all we saw
We made the sun our fire.
