The End

Greenwheel

Is anyone else awake?
Deaf ears on these words must fallDodging friendly fire
Marksmanship inspiresThe end that is never the end
There's no difference between foe or friendRocks in the chamber, they'd have you believe
Faces so sober, trusting souls deceivedMouthless children, still promises they feed
Bullets softer now, still we bleedDodging friendly fire
Marksmanship inspiresThe end that is never the end
There's no difference between foe or friendRocks in the chamber, they'd have you believe
With faces so sober, trusting souls deceivedThe megaphone speaks, still pulses race and scream
Things will be quiet soon, soon, soon, soonThe end that is never the end
There's no difference between foe or friendRocks in the chamber, they'd have you believe
With faces so sober, trusting souls deceived
