

I Want the Waiter

Ella Fitzgerald

I want the waiter
With the water
I want the waiter with the water for my daughter
I want the waiter with the water for my daughter
Cause my daughter has an order for some water onThe tray
He's got a menu
That'll send you
He's got a menu that'll send you and befriend you
He's got a menu that'll send you and befriend you
Maybe lend you if you help me find the waiterWith the tray
While my daughter was having lunch one day
She caught the waiter's eye
He took one look at her, then ran away
Now she's bothered by her thirst unless I findThat guy
I want the waiter
With the water
I want the waiter with the water for my daughter
Don't want the butcher or the baker or the Candlestickle maker
Want the waiter with the water on the tray
