

Judas

The Verve

Feelings
Only feelings
Just let 'em, let 'em go Feelings
Only feelings
Just worthless, so I let 'em go New York, I was Judas
She said 'A latte, double shot for Judas'
Cry for the things that happen, people need to know
And for a dream to happen
You gotta let it go, gotta let it go
Gotta let it go, gotta let it go aha
Gotta let it go You let it go
You let it go But there must be
Some answer
I keep seeking, cause I gotta know
We are numbered, and we are labeled
Do we ever, break our home I knew it, before you said it
There's no need for, need to wait
Need to wait You let it go
I'm running
In the sky
Slipping round
Hold me up high
I I I, high high high
High, high, high Woohoo
Still holding on, you know the dreams have just begun
The dream's just begun
The dream's just begun
I know you're still holding on
Because the dream has just begun
