

Be Heard

Cash L3wis

[INTRO]

yep - yep, yeah - yeah

yep - yep, yeah - yeah - yeah[VERSE #1]

This writers block has got the best of me, testing me
& the fact I can't express myself is stressing me, mentally

Cuz emotion I keep afloat, in & ocean of lethal notes

Poetic symbolism of a man that overdosed

On "living life for everyone but me"

Until I stood in agony - staggering, as I tried to make believe

That people cared about the things I did for them, unselfishly

& in turn would return the favor back to me before I leave

but - society is self centered, there a dying breed

Of artificial adolescents driven by greed, yeah

So in order for me to do what I need to succeed

I'll never let up & envelop all competing emcees

My intelligence supersedes any college degree

So take your "go to school" mentality and battle me, please

& when you freeze up, terrified of what you released

Know my methods are un-killable, Immortal Technique[HOOK]

I stand tall

wont quit, won't fall

I'm giving everything i have till the finish

pushing ability to the limit

I'LL BE HEARD!

I'LL BE HEARD!

I WILL BE HEARD![VERSE #2]

lost, frost bitten heart beats soft & silent, my iris hides behind eyelids

I find it, easier with more pain cuz im used to - battling blocks & barricades in a maze of adventure, hence the lyrics my ambitious fairy tale I tell is real when you hear it, so clear it

I mean the room, turn off the lights too put a spotlight on me, & place a mirror in view i'd rather rap to myself, then & unforgiving crowd of you when i'm destitute you exclude & elude my mood so i poetically try to make sense of it all, cuz if i don't i'll fall, & find myself unable to crawl - & baby there i'll lay, and maybe there i'll stay where you can kick me in the face when i'm down, a double play but better believe that i'll get right - back on my feet ready to rumble with anyone dumb enough to repeat[HOOK]

I stand tall

wont quit, won't fall

pushing ability to the limit

I'LL BE HEARD!

I'LL BE HEARD!

I WILL BE HEARD![VERSE #3]

people ask me why i must remain lyrical, & i don't wanna hear 'em so i steer 'em to the lyrics of a miracle

call my philosophical thought Excalibur because i cut to the chase, no meaningless vernacular

I'm waiting for this industry to care about words, enough to Sign & emcee with a substantial amount of verbs

If only people heard him, if only people cared

If only people listened to more than a kick and snare

but the beat consumes them - I shriek, the pen leaks letters all over the paper placed in front of me patiently I lay in wait to bleed over the beat offering me as a sacrificial human being

& i sing, continuing to bring a piece of me to the table, where these other rappers feel a need to feast and when they come to eat, i'll lure them to the beef subliminally, ill aid in their defeat[HOOK]

I stand tall

wont quit, won't fall

pushing ability to the limit

I'LL BE HEARD!

I'LL BE HEARD!

I WILL BE HEARD!
