

Missing You

Double You

Oh yeahI never needed anyone
To throw me on the floor
Everytime you walked away
I wouls always sayRemember all the times we had
But you would run away
Remember all our yesterdays
And all that was beforeI'm missing you
I'm missing you
Oh to be missing you
Missing you, missing you
Missing you, missing youI'm missing you
I'm missing you
Oh to be missing you
Missing you, missing you
Missing you, missing youI never needed somebody
Yo show me to the door
I gave you all the best I could
But all you gave was warEverytime you walked away
I would always say
Remember me like yesterday
I'll miss you more and more
