

Love That's Bigger

The Swell Season

In the time when your word was true
You gave your heart to the ones you knew
And at the dawn of every day
There was a light that you gave to me
You gave yourself to a love that conquers
Give everything to a love that conquers
And then you came and you came real close
You gave the heart what it wanted most
You took your time and you made it clear
Maybe time will erase some things
You ran away with a love that conquers
You ran away with a love that conquers
