

I Just Wanna Love You

Shrub

I just wanna love my baby,
I just wanna love my lady,
I just wanna love my baby,
that's all i need.I just wanna love my baby,
I just wanna love my lady,
I just wanna love my baby, that's all i need.ain't it funny how time tries to knock us back? toss and turn like we was insomniac, fire birds like you was a Pontiac, fire four letter words every time we spat.the last time i checked, you were still my bitch, still bitching 'bout the ways that i choose to live,instead of tossing the rope, you'd rather cut this thread, instead of saving my life, you'd rather see me dead.when the clouds in the sky, take our sun and go and hide, the rain has all dried, and you cried for the last time.take a trip inside your mind, let you know everything, could have been just fine.Just wanna love my baby,
I just wanna love my lady,
I just wanna love my baby,
that's all i need.I just wanna love my baby,
I just wanna love my lady,
I just wanna love my baby, that's all i need.if we were truly meant to be together, we could weather any storm, and never sever,
tell me this,
do you want to make it better?'i'd rather work it out, but i doubt,
the storms will wipe away the drought, for now, we'll just hold tight, and try to wait it out,and i'm feeling real cold as that new wind blows, (there's a new wind blowing) so i turn on the news and i see them street's closed, (yeah the street's all frozen) so tonight we need to cuddle up real, real close, yeah, (like our heater was broken) i heard the weatherman say we hit an all-time low, (and we know he's not joking)Just wanna love my baby,

I just wanna love my lady,
I just wanna love my baby,
that's all i need.I just wanna love my baby,
I just wanna love my lady,
I just wanna love my baby, that's all i need.at times i wonder where i'd be,
if i ain't ever met you, you never met me, yeah,at times i wonder where i'd be,
if i ain't ever met you,
you never met me, yeah,I just wanna love my babe, that's all i ever wanted, that's all i need,I just wanna love my babe,
that's all i ever wanted,
that's all i need,I just wanna love you, babe,
that's all i ever wanted,
that's all i need,I just wanna love you, babe,
that's all i ever wanted,
that's all i need,
