

Outside Forever

Jacco Gardner

I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting
If you ever feel like changing
Time has told me
What has happened
Now it's over for a second Now will be a day for me and
You to cry out in the summer
To another world where we can
Have it over I don't have her It's been years and I've been traveling
Through the changes I've been having
Skies are brighter more than ever
And remind me I don't have her I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting
If you ever feel like changing
You can find me where the sun hides
I'm forever on the outside
