Slash Your Tires

Luna

No point in screaming
'Cause I'm only dreaming
That you came to pieces
And I came in peaceYou're always loaded
Your life has imploded
Nine weeks of hell, man
But I'm feeling swellAnd in my dreams I slash your tires
And in my dreams I set these fires
And all your fears, it's nothing new
And all your tears, they won't help youYou're always posing
And I was imposing
But I turned the tables
And I'm feeling fineYou're always loaded
Your life has imploded
Nine weeks of hell, man
But I'm feeling swellIn my dreams I slash your tires
And in my dreams I set these fires
And all your fears, it's nothing new
And all your tears, they won't help youAnd all your fears, it's nothing new
And all your tears, they won't help you
