Hunger

Outloud Dreamer

Alone in the way she feels she twists her fingers and stares at her knees and there's no way out she cries.
And there's no way out of here . . .

and it's this Hunger ... that's got me here and it's Hunger ... its got me thrilled and it's this Hunger . . . that makes me jump to . . . too What have I got myself into . . .

In the dark of a winter's night and the silence is so loud it's threatening to bite you just she pushes a way, push the wild into a cave

and it's this Hunger . . . that makes me jump too . . . too What have I got myself into . . .

What have I got myself into . . .

pushes pushes

pushes pushes
push the wild
pushes pushes
into a cave
pushes pushes
push the wild
pushes pushes

whee . . . whee . . .

You can't hold her back, you can't close the door, you got to keep coming back for more.

you got to keep coming back for more.

You can't hold her back, you can't close the door,

you can't hold her back, can't close the door,
you got to keep coming back for more.
push the wild into a cave can't hold back, can't close the door
can't hold back, can't close the door

and it's the Hunger ... that's got me here
and it's Hunger ... got me thrilled
and it's Hunger . . . that makes me jump too . . . too

What have I got myself into . . .
What have I got myself into . . .
