

What If I Was Willing (feat. Chris Carmack)

Nashville Cast

What if you were wearing a sundress,
Sitting out on your front steps,
Waiting on someone to run with,
Oh baby, what if? What if you were needing some restless heart,
Kickin' up dust in his fast car,
Pulling right up to where you are,
Oh baby, what if? What if you wanted to feel alive,
Make something of the time you're killing,
What if you wanted somebody to love you right,
What if I was willing?
What if I was willing? What if an old boy broke his back,
To get a pocket full of cash,
Just to blow it on anything you asked,
Oh baby, what if? What if you wanted to feel alive,
Make something of the time you're killing,
What if you wanted somebody to love you right,
What if I was willing? What if I could be there in a heartbeat?
Yeah, what if there was room on my front seat?
Baby, baby, baby ... What if you wanted to feel alive,
Make something of the time you're killing,
What if you wanted somebody to love you right,
What if I was willing?
What if you wanted to ride with the windows down?
Bare feet banging on the dash to Dylan,
What if you wanted somebody to love you right?
What if I was willing?
What if I was willing?
What if I was willing? (That's what I'm talking 'bout...)
