Theme from Tokyo

Bis

Lying there asleep
I wonder if she knows
That I am going away
I packed upAnd I'm heading out the bedroom door
I'm feeling kinda guilty
But this cant be changed
Will she resent me for thisI've said, I'm sorry but please don't worry
There's nothing that I can do
I won't forget you, feel bad I left you
I promise Ill be back soonIt's been two weeks now
Since I left you at
The window with sad eyes
It's bad 'cos I can't even
Talk to you on the phoneBut you know that very soon
Now I'll be home
It won't be long now
I'll see you at the break of dawn nowI'm coming home now
I'll see you at the break of dawn now
