

Only for the Stars in Your Eyes

Xandria

On a train to Never land
We are riding hand in hand
We are chasing unicorns
And elves Chinese dragons guide our way
To the dawning of the day
We will give a promise to Ourselves Only for tonight
Only for the stars in your eyes We are crazy but who cares?
To our heaven there are stairs
If we want it to be like that
And reality is just
An illusion that we must
Soon return to, yes, but not yet Only for tonight
Only for the stars in your eyes Hey, give me what I need
Hey, you are what I want
Only for tonight
For your eyes only Only for tonight
Only for the stars in your eyes
