

Evil Twin

Buddy Guy

I saw somebody, lookin a lot like you.
Wrapped around your bassman on lonely avenue.
I hear you saying that you ain't never been with him.
Well if it wasn't you baby, it must have been your evil twin. Now your evil twin, got your pretty little face.
And your heart shaped booty, I would know it any place, hunnie.
Now I still here you saying that you ain't never been with him.
Yeah, it seems to me, if that ain't you baby, well it must have been your evil twin. Yeah, you know baby, I met your whole damn family.
Who's foolin who?
Your mama had three boys and one girl, that must mean you.
And I still hear you sayin, hunnie, that you've never, never, never been with him.
Well not listen to me one last time.
If that wasn't you baby, then that must of have been your evil twin.
