Sunday Morning

50 Cent

This is how I'm feeling right now, I mean I'm blessed Me I ain't got... around... doctor required
But nigger I'm cleaner than your motherfucking preacher on Sunday morning
Me I run the streets so ... ...hard to get by But better be the cleanest motherfucker in the surfs on Sunday morningI made so many mistakes, so many corrections, I'm so far from perfect, so many imperfections
But I'm a go getta,I get up and go get it , so if you're preaching prosperity I wanna hate it
I make the hood look good turn base into base lines, punchlines to white lines, and run for them one time.
My verse is like a graphic scene, close your eyes man you seen it don't feel...
And you seen... puff glow, like there's no tomorrow
Hit that pass that, that's the motto, you know bills like they releasing from my friends
They gonna wake up tomorrow with the same shit again
You think I'm bad man they don't give a fuck
They're trying to do what they gotta do to get it fromMe I ain't got... around... doctor required
But nigger I'm cleaner than your motherfucking preacher on Sunday morning
Me I run the streets so ... ...hard to get by
But better be the cleanest motherfucker in the surfs on Sunday morningI take a line out the cookbook,.... shoot me I shoot back I don't care if you die
First the sun comes down then the sun goes up
And the coke price too when the nigga's make a buzz
It's freeze nigger, get the fuck on the wall Anything you work for they come and take it all Man it's like they don't know what they're taking Hit you with the tazer, then you siting like a victim
When you pray say a prayer for me, a nigger could use it
Before we pop up on that ass with toasters
Lord forgive me I'm the rest of the game
Forgive me for that line and the rest of my sinse I ain't got... around... doctor required
But nigger I'm cleaner than your motherfucking preacher on Sunday morning
Me I run the streets so ... ...hard to get by
But better be the cleanest motherfucker in the surfs on Sunday morning
