With piggish white skin, kid, where you been?I got a blue eye but my tight length devil

And I can rock through your style
Eatin cold hardy stew, so what'cha wanna do?Im comin real soon to a theater near you
So, won't you come critique me when Im live on stage
'Cause Im gonna break
I gonna break my rusty cage, my rusty cageWatch the way I freak it when I bust my gauge
Cause all that loud gun talk, it dont mean squat
If my tool gets hot Im gonna bust your knot
And give it all I got up in your wisdom slotAnd cold and rains couldnt stop her from callin me poppa
Big Daddy drawer dropper, Mr. Heartbreaker
She leaves Mary Poppins but comes home SekaAh yes, yes, yall cause Im so fly
Everlast be the apple of your earths eye

And D Style come to feel your earthquakeSocialize a little somethin and you sweatin my style
Challenge your world, you wanna shell my mix
You wanna sit with my flesh and recognize the tec
You never seen the niggers best, a mesmerize-nessIm hittin' your head with styles that are liquid
You drip this, sweat this, perspired is desired, it's wetness
You get from Divine Style, spark this girl, chill
I see you got the love, the lust
So won't you live my cosmos exodusA to my precious, Ima undress my message
Into my wisdom body to my wisdom method
You need a star for your crescent
I got a diablo brass for your atmosphere
My a dope mathematics will soak you like incense sincereUh, baby for my apparatus
I do the justice to your physical, anoint your aider
Nourishment of your nova, a hard style anesthetics
While the guard be sparkin that indo seedThe earth pieces be increasin the need to be pleased
I represent the illest villains and the worst of bad breeds

And D Style be the apple of your earths eye
Ah yes, yes, yall cause we don't fake
And Everlast come and feel your earthquake I said baby be calm, baby, don't cry
[Incomprehensible] the universe is on top
I said baby be calm, baby, don't cry
[Incomprehensible] the universe is on top My love is stronger than pride, my love's thicker than blood
My killer squads in effect, nobodys livin off hud
If he missles a Scud, Ill run a Patriot gig Ill have you flippin your wing, Ill put the clip in my sink And cock the hammer back, click clack, put a hole in your back
The size of a plum, you can come get some
But my attitude shitty like G. Gordon Litty
Take pity on a child thats been raised in the city From East to West to maintain my rep
So many times yall assume my flow
I go mono, stereo or solo, you never know
Choose a flow and Ill throw the fattest atom Im so hot, and so law, its so far from the plan
I reflect your ladies drama, fool the ladies that be standin
My composition de-circular, hurtin up mad opposition Cause Im so fly
And Everlast be the apple of your earths eye
Ah yes, yes, yall cause we don't fake
And D Style come to feel your earthquake Ah yes, yes, yall cause Im so fly
And Everlast be the apple of your earths eye
Ah yes, yes, yall cause we don't fake
And D Style come to feel your earthquake
