

See/Believe (2014 Remaster)

Frente!

Hi, I'm an ordinary organism
And I was kinda linging the walls
In a warzone, slamdance, backbeat
Poison and meanderingI hear the little voice say
 Oh baby are you all alone?
 I get ready for the dangerous behavior
I feel the pull of my genetic codeSometimes what you see
 Makes you holler for your saviour
 Especially the babies
All set to explodeI look up past the jewelery
 The ecstasy, the insanity
 I count the knives
Count the teeth in her smilePeople are just animals
 Angry, hungry
 They falter for an instant
Then you see the child and you say -I love you baby
 Love you every single little bit
 I love your walk, your talk
Your smile, your style, your titsI love the way you swing that Circumstance around
 You could ask me again
And I would bow down, I'd bow down, but...I see you but I don't believe you
 I see you but I don't believe you
 I see you but I don't believe you
I see you but I don't believe youI see you but I don't believe you
 I see you but I don't believe you
 I see you but I don't believe you
Hey, I see you but I don't believe you
