Talk to Her

Priestess

Talk to her, don't leave her behind
You shut her out for too long
I know 'cause I've seen her cry
If you keep her down
She'll get up and move onWake up, it's time, open your eyes
You've got to let her know
Stop wasting time, make up your mind
Love her or let her goTalk to her, you've done something wrong
We've all got something to hide
But don't turn your back for too long
There'll always be somebody waiting in lineI could be all that she wants
Got a heart, got a home
Got a hand for her to holdTalk to her, there's something you'll find
With all this pain that you caused
You'll be the loser this time
And I'll be the one with the girl that you lostBelieve me, she's leaving
And I'll be the one, look what you lost
