Come Around

Ingram Hill

Short skirt, tight t-shirt, and knowing all the while I turn around to look at you, you barely cracked a smile
As the sun fades, with a drink or two,
you take me for a ride
You won't say just what you want,
but I can see it in your eyes
You don't understand all the mess we're in
I wish you'd never made a sound
You don't understand but it's got to end
You'll find the strength to let me down
When you finally come around
Behind the wheel at 3am,

I wake you up to talk
Only late you'll hear my voice, but you don't mind at all
You don't understand all the mess we're in
I wish you'd never made a sound
You don't understand but it's got to end
You'll find the strength to let me down
When you finally come around
Give me all the blame
Cause I don't want the same
But I don't know how to let you know
Here we are, face to face
I'm glad that you're in town
You stay the night, while I'm alone
Guess you finally came around
