Spin Me Around

Amy Meredith

trust me, baby, it's alright.
let's get high and ride around all night.and if you're licking your lips, it makes me think you want me more.
and the look in your eyes is saying meet me at the door.you spin me around it's out of control,
my heart is on fire in this room.
you wanted it all, i told you before i was sleeping
with her to get to you.and i won't tell my girlfriend about it, if you don't tell your boyfriend about it.(you spin me around)i'll take you home and then we'll take this way too far.
if we're alone, it doesn't matter where we are.and if you're shaking your hips, it makes me think you want it more. you're kissing my lips but you clothes are on the flooryou're taking this off, and it's turning me on,
and we never let go.you spin me around it's out of control,
my heart is on fire in this room.
you wanted it all, i told you before i was sleeping
with her to get to you.and i won't tell my girlfriend about it, if you don't tell your boyfriend about it.(you spin me around)we were only getting started, and i will never let you go.
girl, you are all i ever wanted, and they will never, ever know.you're taking this off, and it's turning me on,
and we never let go. oh, oh, ohyou spin me around it's out of control,
my heart is on fire in this room.
you wanted it all, i told you before i was sleeping
with her to get to you.and i won't tell my girlfriend about it, if you don't tell your boyfriend about it.(you spin me around)
