Ash

Remembering the warm summer nights
When every thing is gonna turn out right
When all the answers lie behind your eyes
And every thing's gonna turn out rightAll I want is to see you smile
All I want is to see you smileThe answers always are waiting there
You give me feelings that I used to get
Remember things that I had forgotten long agoRemembering the warm summer nights
When every thing is gonna turn out right
Remembering the warm summer nights
And every thing's gonna turn out rightAll I want is to see you smile
All I want is to see you smileThe answers always are waiting there
You give me feelings that I used to get
And remember things that I had forgotten
Get the feelings I used to get
And remember things that I had forgotten long agoAll I want is to see you smile
All I want is to see you smile
