Intuition

DJ Encore

Ooh, ooh, I have come all this way, time to make a turn
Will I make it right, I'll live and I'll learn
I'm playing my own song, now I will survive a change of key
Because I follow this guideline hiding inside of meFound an answer in my heart that I will follow
It might keep sanity at bay
But I'll be hollow not to give a part of me
I get so much from you
Could this really be a wrong when it feels right to doOoh, ooh, feels like my past is a page I turn
In the book of fate I've lived and I've learned
I'm playing my own game, now I'm making rules I won't pretend
When intuition conquers you, you will win in the endFound an answer in my heart that I will follow
It might keep sanity at bay
But I'll be hollow not to give a part of me
I get so much from you
Could this really be a wrong when it feels right to doEasy drifting away on believing
Never give up on a feelingFound an answer in my heart
Found an answer in my heartFound an answer in my heart that I will follow
It might keep sanity at bay
But I'll be hollow not to give a part of me
I get so much from you
Could this really be a wrong when it feels right to do
